Steps to Take When an Agent Isn’t Stepping Up

At some point, every agent is going to experience a setback, and as a result, their performance may suffer. Here’s what a broker can do to help.

FEBRUARY 2018 | BY LEE NELSON –REALTOR® MAG

It took Deb Cizek a long time to figure out that not everyone is wired the same way. As team leader of The Cizek Group at Berkshire Hathaway Home Services Ambassador Real Estate in Omaha, Neb., she has witnessed many agents go through periods where they’re not quite pulling their weight.

“You have to look at the way each person functions,” she says. For example, you can’t assume an agent isn’t a great salesperson if they aren’t setting and achieving extraordinarily high sales goals. There could be many reasons why they’re slacking in a particular month, she says. It can be personal hardship, health-related issues, or a lack of training.

Cizek has also witnessed many of her team members face tragedies, from cancer to the death of a relative. She believes having a heart and being in tune with who your people are can be the first step in figuring out what’s wrong and where to go from there.

Here are additional steps that Cizek and other real estate experts believe can help when you notice an agent lagging behind.

Use a shared strategic plan. When everyone agrees on the goals for the team, it creates greater buy-in, says Donna Price, founder and CEO of Compass Rose Consulting in Newton, N.J. When agents agree and anticipate coming back month after month to report on how they did, it creates natural motivation. “No one wants to look bad in front of their peers or boss,” she says.

REALTOR® & Government Day

Early February, over twenty of your fellow REALTORS® traveled to Madison once again to lobby representatives from our districts to advocate for current bills which we believe will be beneficial to REALTORS® and private property rights. The conference was an opportunity not only to sit down with the State’s leaders, but Governor Scott Walker was also present to address the attendees. After briefing on the conference’s central bills, everyone traveled to the capital to have sit down discussions with representatives for our districts and give them personal stories to support the stances we took on the day’s issues. It was there that we were given an opportunity to be a part of the action and “convince” our representatives that the issues we presented were important and that the bills we were discussing were ones that they should support. For me, this was one of the most interesting parts of the whole day—seeing REALTORS® from our own Association making a difference and voicing their concerns in order to procure support for our bills.

However, as enjoyable as the day was, not all of our members had the opportunity to attend. If this is you, have no fear, you’ve come to the right place. In order to allow for all REALTORS® to be involved and active in the political process (which everyone should be), it is so important to be informed and knowledgeable about the issues! See below for a legislative briefing on the four bills which were central to the lobbying efforts which took place on REALTOR® & Government Day.

Housing Affordability Bill (AB 770)
Authored by Rep. Rob Brooks (R-Saukville) and Sen. Frank Lasee (R-DePere)
Status: Enacted into Law
From WRA: “The WRA supports legislation aimed at making housing and commercial property more affordable for Wisconsin’s workforce, families and businesses.”

Wetland Regulatory Reform (AB 547/SB 600)
Authored by Rep. Jim Steineke (R-Kaukauna) and Sen. Roger Roth (R-Appleton)
Status: The Assembly Committee on Regulatory Licensing Reform and the Senate Committee on Natural Resources and Energy had a joint hearing on December 21, 2017
From WRA: “The WRA supports legislation that would reform Wisconsin’s nonfederal wetland regulations in a meaningful and responsible manner.”

Affordable Rental Housing (Landlord/Tenant Bill: AB 771)
Authored by Rep. Bob Brooks (R-Saukville) and Sen. Frank Lasee (R-De Pere)
Status: This legislation has passed the state Assembly and is available for a vote in the state Senate.
From WRA: “The WRA supports legislation that modifies and updates numerous provisions to landlord/tenant law in Wisconsin to make rental housing more affordable and bring clarity to current law where questions remain.”

Real Estate Disclosure Reports (AB 812/SB 687)
Authored by Rep. Cody Horlacher (R-Mukwonago) and Sen. Luther Olsen (R-Ripon)
Status: This legislation has passed the state Assembly and is available for a vote in the state Senate.
From WRA: “The WRA supports legislation that provides 1) a more user-friendly report for a seller to complete when selling residential or vacant land, and 2) definitional consistency in the transaction between the home inspection report and the offer to purchase.”
Foundation History

It all began in 2004 with a simple idea “helping our neighbors in need.” REALTORS® across the country help people obtain the ultimate goal of home ownership.

Once realized, home maintenance becomes an on-going process and can create heavy financial burdens. It is the realization the area residents may be unable to afford necessary home repairs, that the RANWW Foundation was born.

The Foundation is funded by generous donations from members of the REALTORS® Association of Northwestern Wisconsin.

The REALTORS® Association of Northwestern Wisconsin Foundation, awards grants to neighbors in need. Grants fund projects for homeowners who are experiencing financial strain.
